Beautiful LovestoryVon vpobiAt first I have to say, I'm a great fan of all her stories anyway. It was very emotional and the characters very well described. A story to live in with, although I had between fear it would end differently. The Good-bye was tearfully "My heart screamed to stay, but that wasn't what he needed, and I loved him too much to not give him what he needed" and then I was shocked by Elijah when he was back at the university, but I was not disappointed and it was a wonderful end. The workup of a loss can often be very bad and has been described very well. I love this story, the farm, the horses, Chase and Elijah. And i love this style of writing, thus its beautiful to read. Five Stars because for sure i'll read it again.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Bittersweet and emotionalVon SonneVery sweet and despite the action mostly happened on the emotional level, not boring.I had a few issues - like there were moments I really didn't like Chase, especially when he tried to shove Eli away AGAIN and I thought that Eli was kind of too mature for his age and upbringing. And I didn't get how the time at college was enough to make his decision right then - and what his degree in music was even ment for.But the lovestory itself had a bittersweet and very emotional quality, combined with a very good storytelling, that made me enjoy the book very much.
