of twists and turns and Jenny Colgan manages once again to really bring the characters to life. I can imagine the different accents and how the different characters look. As always I was left wanting more. A nice touch in the last few books have been the recipes. 1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Weihnachten in Lipton Von PamN Rosie ist glücklich in Lipton. Sie hat einen Freund, Freunde und ihren Laden. Kurz vor Weihnachten kündigt sich auch noch ihre Familie aus Australien an. Eine Tragdie berschattet jedoch die festliche Zeit. Das Cover ist wie immer toll. Knallig rot mit vielen weihnachtlichen und suessen Motiven. Perfekt fuer diese Story. Die Idee der Story fand ich echt toll. Aber die Ausfhrung weniger. Ich finde die erste Hlfte war ziemlich lang und hat sich etwas gezogen. Es gab einige Teile der Storyline, die die Autorin haette ausfhrlicher schreiben koennen. Ausserdem bleiben einige Sachen offen. Vorallem was Edward und seine Familie betrifft. Dieser Teil der Geschichte bringt zwar einen Abschluss fuer Lilian, aber fuer einige Charaktere nicht. Mir fehlten hier auch die Flashbacks von Lilian, die im ersten Teil vorgekommen sind. Im grossen und ganzem trotzdem eine interessante und weihnachtliche Story. Die bekannten Charaktere sind wieder Teil der Geschichte und es ist einiges los im Laden und in Lipton. 1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. totally "sweet" Von ragI bought the book to have something "nice" to read over the holidays - no one need be disappointed: the plot unravels with a twist here and there, but it's totally lovable and very "sweet", just like in the sweet shop. I just adore British books, they are very homey and their feeling of Christmas is wonderfully traditional!
