Don't understand the bad reviewsVon Vanessa HoffmannI have read weak novels before, but this was certainly not one of them. Usually, I am a grammar nazi but I was too involved with the story to really care about the few mistakes in this book. Christmas kisses and cookies is a light romantic comedy in which our main character Summer faces challenges not only in her love life but also in her family and in the town of Kissing Bridge. Will it all end well for her?The book is well written, had a lot of heart and feel, was funny and didn't seem cheesy at all to me, which I was the most worried about.I loved it!5 Stars
