teamed up with Trevor to get a painting from a Mafia boss. but nothing is as it seems at the beginning, not only have both of them their own problems with this mission but also are they attracted to each other - and they have to pose as an engaged couple.this was a fun read with some steamy scenes and Mrs. deLaney knows how to write them. Nevertheless I missed the emotional development, the developing trust. the story was not perfect either although there were some twist and turns in it, but I got the feeling that there should be more information on the plotthis is the second book in the TRAIT series, but my first. but I don't think it is necessary to read them in orderI received an ARC of this book in exchange for an honest review
