Hin- und HergerissenVon Kerstin_psSloane lebt nach dem tragischem Tod ihrer Eltern ein unglckliches, sehr restriktives Leben bei ihrem Onkel Stephen und dessen herrschchtiger Frau. Sie darf nichts, widr nicht geliebt, Aschenputtel.An ihrem 22. Geburtstag soll sie ein Vermgen erben, dass ihr Onkel treuhndisch verwaltet hat.10 Tage vorher wird sie bei einer Feier pltzlich von ihrer ersten grossen Liebe Killian abgeholt. Sie hat Killian einige Jahre nach einem tragischem

Ereignis, dass sie entzweit hat, nicht mehr gesehen. Vor dem Ereignis waren sie sehr eng und fhlten sich stark zueinander hingezogen. Jetzt hasst er sie. Killian ist nun Billionr und erklrt Sloane, dass ihr zu erwartendes Vermgen dahin ist, ihr Onkel alles verzoockt hat, die Firma ihres Onkels (einst von ihrem Vater) pleite ist und er die Schulden bernommen habe - im Gegenzug hat ihr Onkel sozusagen Sloane an Killian fr ein Jahr "verkauft". Sie muss bei ihm bleiben, alles tun, was er will - wenn sie das nicht tut, will er sein Geld zurck. Killian ist, mit Verlaub, ein A***. Er benimmt sich total kindisch, gefhlslos und dominiert natrlich alles. Sei es physisch oder monet. Sloane, die Jungfrau gibt sich dann auch trotz allem emotionalem Schmerz Killian hin und die Story nimmt ihren Lauf. Es sind Missverstndnisse, seitenweise JUICY (literally) Beschreibungen mit soft BDSM, Beleidigungen und gekrnkter Stolz. Die Geschichte ist an und fr sich schon schlssig, ohne Cliffhanger und natrlich mit HEA, aber ich mochte Killian nicht besonders. Anfangs gar nicht, im Laufe der Geschichte blitzt dann zwar ein anderer Mensch durch und zum Ende entwickelt er sich so 100% kontrr zum Anfang, dass es auch fast schon unglaubwrdig ist. Sloane ist ja eigentlich unsicher, wchst dann in der Beziehung, erfhrt dann Wahrheiten, wird wieder unsicher, glaubt an alles und an nichts. Nervttend. Das Buch ist hot - wobei es mir dann zeitweise zuviel wurde und ich teilweise einfach weitergeblttert habe. Kurzum: man kann es gut lesen, ich wrde mit den Hauptcharakteren einfach nicht warm - dann wird es schwer. 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. So much deception Von Sabine Sloane Evans lost everything and everyone. Her parents are dead and Killian, her former best friend and the man she loved hates her and she has no clue why. After her father's death she had to move in with her uncle Stephen and his wife Celine who is making her life a living hell. She has no access to her trust fond or her shares in her father's company until her twenty-second birthday. Celine forces her to get an education she never wanted and makes her wear ugly clothes. She has no friends left besides her old friend Demi; Celine scared all other away with lies about Sloane. Then one day, only weeks before her twenty-second birthday, Killian shows up on a celebrity event Celine forced her to go. He is still cold and mean to her but he more or less forces her to leave with him. He shows her some documents and blackmails her to come and stay with him for one year. He owns her and she has to do everything he wants. She still loves him but can she survive to live with him when he is cruel and mean and very cold? Wow, what a heartbreaking story. It took about 17 chapters until the reader learns what happend those 4.5 years ago. My heart broke little by little while reading Sloane's story. She had to suffer so much and Killian still makes her life worse. I suspected some of the truth but the whole story was just so sad. I don't want to go into details and spoil it for others who want to read this book. It was a sad but great book and I loved it very much. I read the books about the Hart family from Ella Fox which was awesome. When I came across this book I just had to have it and was not disappointed. Please read this book!!! 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. ... Von MelGee i really wasn't sure i should like Killiani was torn between loving and hating him.
