I absolutely loved ConvictedVon readerWhen I began reading I had no idea what the heck was going on. I said to myself, "What happened that lead to this point?" I had NO idea what to expect. All I knew is what was going it broke my heart. What happened to Claire? Where is Tony? All this was not going on at the end of Truth. These unknowns encouraged me to continue reading. I needed answers! Once again, I was battling with my love/hate relationship for Tony as the story progressed. I needed to know how Catherine fit into this mess. Then it happened. The truth was finally coming out. The pieces to the puzzle were finally starting to align. I found out who the real monster was. Did I expect it? NO! Convicted was an emotional roller coaster with twists and turns coming from every angle. Each chapter left you questioning the fate of each character. Then the timeline of events was finally exposed and things started to make sense. I'm sorry I'm being vague, but there is no way to describe this novel without exposing spoilers. What I did learn from this story is that true love can withstand any obstacle; the feeling of loss, betrayal, abuse, grief, deceit. This series was emotional, disturbing, heart-wrenching, and beautiful all at the same time. You witness the characters growing and learning from mistakes and changing for the better. The author showed just how loving Tony can be when his heart and priorities are in the right place. I would have been unable to accept the original fate, if a certain something did not happen. I cannot wait for Behind His Eyes to learn more about what was going on with Tony during this whole experience. I strongly recommend reading this series, but you cannot read them out of order. This series is being marked as one of my all time favorite reads. Excellent story!

Von TJIch habe bis jetzt alle Bcher gelesen und mag grundstzlich die Geschichte aber das Buch ist definitiv von einer Frau geschrieben. Fnf Mal so lang wie es sein msste, mit den immer wieder gleichen Gefhlausbrchen, mit einem perfekten Liebhaber, mit dem sie immer voll befriedigt ist und und und Von LesespassDer 1. Teil der Reihe hat mir gut gefallen, er hatte interessante Anstze in der Handlung. Ich mag lange Bcher, sie geben genug Zeit, die Charaktere zu entwickeln. Das trifft auf Band 1 auch zu. Band 2 und 3 jedoch.....Es zieht sich endlos hin. Die Heldin sammelt einmal zu oft hilflos ihre ihr ergebenen Helfer.....Tja, am attraktivsten ist da der Preis, der hnlich dem Handlungsniveau einfach niedrig ist. Ein immer ermnderer Lesespass!
