A Great ReadVon Al-Khemet Book ClubMore than Blood was more than a good read, it was a great one. Amanda Vyne deeply channeled her energy into this one. Gabriel Ferrars character is flawless, not literally, but I loved him! He is so strong-willed and determined, these are traits I love about characters in fictional books because its so inspiring and the line between fiction and the real world is blurred and overrated anyway. His journey sent him on a path he shall never forget and he meets someone that sets our hearts on fire, their passion and romance is unforgettable. There is drama, there is mystery, there is romance and intrigue and I loved every bit of it. Ripe with suspense and nicely edited, this page-turner is a must read. Al-Khemet Book Club, Feb 2015

Kurzbeschreibung Erotic paranormal romance Authors Edition Gabriel Ferrar is a House Marshal, an enforcer of the laws of his people. But when his investigation into missing young girls lead him to a dark alley his path crosses with an incredible crossbreed whose blood promises him a lifetime of pleasure hes willing to sacrifice everything to gain. Yet her past may be the key to stopping a deranged killer from taking the life of another little girl -- but only if he can gain her trust before time runs out. Kel Sheridan works for a private agency called Incog, a vigilante organization that deals with the dark underbelly of the Arcane. While investigating a local blood ring she finds herself uncontrollably drawn to a stranger and in the time it takes to press her lips to his, he's made her his blood mate. Kel is furious, especially when she discovers he is a son of the House that turned her out on the streets as a child for not being of pure blood. When another little girl disappears she finds herself needing the strength of the unwanted blood bond between them to face the truth of her past to catch their killer.
