An enjoyable British mysteryVon Karen O.This book introduces Libby Forest and her cat Fuzzy. Walking a neighbour's dog, she comes across a body near the lighthouse. Her inner sleuth tells her that there's something fishy.With Murder at the Lighthouse, Frances Evesham has created a nicely woven suspense story with local flair. The story comprises a broad variety of lovingly elaborated characters with sufficient depth and interesting interactions to solve the murder case. I had a great time reading Murder at the Lighthouse - it is a very enjoyable read. I was drawn into the story right away, enjoying the Exham on Sea flair. Libby, Mandy, Fuzzy and Bear are likeable characters - I am looking forward to reading more about them and the mysteries they are going to face.This is for you if you like shorter reads, female sleuths, cosy suspense, pets and seaside towns.A suspenseful easy read in a series to watch out for.Recommended.
