Von Emily Hendrickson : My Lady Faire (English Edition) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised My Lady Faire (English Edition):

KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Sweet.Von Detra FitchLady Claudia is named as one of the guardians of her stepson when her husband dies. Problem is that Lord Hawke has been too. Both want what is best for the boy. Yet they cannot seem to agree on what that is. Since the two do not see eye-to-eye, the lady and lord have many spats. Seeing them meet had on and watching the pair lock horns gets very amusing at times. The entire romance story comes across to the reader as very sweet. If you prefer danger or mystery in your Regencies, avoid this one. However, if you love realistic romance in your Regencies, you cannot go wrong with Emily Hendrickson! *Reviewed by Detra Fitch of Huntress Reviews.

KurzbeschreibungWidowed Claudia, Lady Fairfax, was doing her best to raise her precocious stepson, Edward. She didnt need the interference of the neighbor who shared guardianship of the boy. Handsome Lord Hawke was both infuriating and intimidatingbut Edward adored him. And what did a carefree bachelor know about raising a boy, anyhow?
