KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. well written but feels more like a biographyVon Jeri T. RyanThere was no indication that this is based on a true story - and I admire the real Bryan for all that he achived.But unfortunately even well written it did feel like a biography and this is a way of storytelling that I do not like very much and would normally not choose for a book to read.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Interesting and great Von Yogibear1981A true story written very well. It's interesting to learn that whatever happens in life things can still work out for everyone if they stay positive!

Kurzbeschreibung If your friends jumped off a cliff, would you jump too? Bryan chose to dive. Moments later, as he lay on the beach, unable to move his arms or legs, two questions ran through his mind: Would he walk again? And would he ever have kids? Based on the incredible true story of life, love, and never giving up. Kurzbeschreibung If your friends jumped off a cliff, would you jump too? Bryan chose to dive. She started out at Utah State University where she pursued a degree in English. Go Aggies! She then finished her BA at the University of Utah (to be closer to her then boyfriend, now hubby) where she got an emphasis in creative writing. After college she worked as an administrative assistant, where she continued to write stories for the amusement of her co-workers. When her first daughter was born, and with the encouragement of a fortune cookie, she quit her job and became a full-time mommy and writer. It seemed like fate when Matt and Stacy married. She was a writer, and her father-in-law had a story that demanded to be written. She and her husband have three children, two Corgis, and a fish named Don. If you enjoyed this book, Stacy would love and appreciate your reviews on and Goodreads! She also loves to make new friends.
