KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Lovely storyVon Simona ElenaWhat a great book!!! Loved it from the first minute onwards.It was great to read about Henrys transformation into a sexy and attractive man and I was only waiting for the moment, when Lucy was falling in love with her best friend, or lets say, when she realised it.It was clear to me, that Henry was in love with her and he almost told her. He really sounds like the perfect man, almost too good to be true. Well, his first attempts of flirting are a bit shaky, but then he gets them all. Why does Lucy feel jealous? He starts going out with several women and becomes a real Macho. Lucy of course doesn't like that. Then one night, the two of them decide to have a night in and she cooks for him. They cuddle up on the sofa and then they kiss... Henry stops, because he doesn't want to ruin their friendship. Things are really awkward between them afterwards. Jane found a great way to share all these moments with us, the writing is so gripping. Lucy wants to tell him about her feelings several times, but she never does, because he has bigger news... He starts going out with one of her friends (Erin) and her other friend Dominique really thinks that Erin is in love with Henry. Out of the blue Henry announces that he will be going traveling for over a year with Erin and some of her friends. Lucy cannot believe it and is soooooo sad. There is a lot going on in the story, but it's never too much. Jane really understands how to create an interesting storyline and there was always some drama, which I consider very important in a novel, to make it fascinating and exciting. When Lucy's mom is in hospital, the day is there: Henry is leaving. Will it be too late? The last few scenes were just so adorable and seemed so real, I loved every single word and I was curious about how the characters decided to share their feelings. Erin and Dominique were such good friends and I loved who they were included in the story. All the characters seemed so lively and were well described. I loved reading this book. It was so funny, romantic and full of interesting dates, talks and trips. I was waiting for them to get together, but I know there were still so many pages to read, so I had to wait! Well, it was worth it!!!
