Groartige BDSM-Romanze, aber lausige Rechtschreibung Von Renate H. Master K. arbeitet undercover für das FBI in einem Sklavenhändlerring. Um Francine zu schützen, an deren Entführung er unbeabsichtigt beteiligt war, kauft er sie für sich. Und entdeckt, dass sie eine echte Sub ist. Die Geschichte ist wirklich gut, die Handlung und die Entwicklung der Charaktere glaubhaft. Der Kampf von Francine gegen ihre Entführung und ihre langsame Akzeptanz der eigenen Gefühle ist großartig beschrieben. Die Art, in der Master K. Francine unterrichtet, ist vom Feinsten. Beide Figuren sind so willensstark und gut beschrieben, dass ich das Gefühl hatte, direkt daneben zu stehen. Die Spannung bleibt intensiv bis zuletzt. Aber! Die Rechtschreibung ist katastrophal. Beginnend bei falscher Rechtschreibung bis hin zu Doppelwörtern (z.B. and and,...) Manchmal kann man den Sinn eines Satzes nur erahnen. Ich verstehe nicht, warum die Autorin sich offensichtlich nicht die Zeit genommen hat, die Story wenigstens einmal zu "berlesen". Ohne die Fehler ist es ein 5 Sterne Buch. Wer es schafft, über die Fehler hinwegzusehen, sollte sich diese Geschichte nicht entgehen lassen.

Kurzbeschreibung "Master K" has the lean sculpted build of a roman soldier with dark smoldering brown eyes and dark crew cut hair. For months he's been working with the FBI to stop a sex slave ring in a ritzy part of Maryland outside of the Washington D.C. area. One night he accidentally runs the innocent Francine Anderson off the road making her a target of the very same slavers. To save her from their sadistic "Boss" he claims her as his own paying an exorbitant fee since she's marked as a possible submissive by The Organization. He takes her to his cabin deep in the woods where he isolates her. To his delight the curvy, slender, blonde is a natural submissive and nothing like he expects. She's incredibly smart and sassy in a way that challenges him and turns him on in ways he never expects. He spends weeks delighting in her and teaching her to serve him in every way; and as they spend more time together and their bond grows stronger, he finds himself completely enamored. For a while he's able to keep them both safe, but the diabolical Organization is closing in. They know there's a leak and are desperate to find out who it is. It's only a matter of time, eventually they will catch up with them - K cannot keep them sequestered forever.
