Know was 18 back then. They made a pact to wait until she turns 18 to finally be together. Knox waited for her. Harlow didn't wait.She fell in love with Collin. She married him.Now, at 22, she's trapped in a horribly violent and bullying marriage. She tried to leave, but Collin threatened her family. Guns, arson... no way she can leave and be responsible for someone dear to her being hurt or worse. Knox doesn't know what Harlow is going through. He's still hurt that she didn't choose him. He's waited for over seven years - he never got over her. Then one day he comes across this mentally and physically broken girl in a caf. Harlow. He doesn't know how bad her life is, he only knows that he has to get her out of there. But Harlow can't let him. People - and Knox - would get hurt. She never regretted anything more than choosing Collin over Knox on her 18th birthday. Is it too late for her and Knox now??? WHAT WILL HAPPEN WITH HARLOW KNOX??? WILL THERE BE A HEA??? WILL THERE BE A HORRIBLE CLIFFHANGER??? Nope - I'm not telling you Ok - no Cliffhanger - it's a standalone Romance

I REALLY LOVED THE BOOK! Thank you Molly - or her publisher - the cover of this second book is sooo much better than that of LETTING GO. I still have nightmares when I think about that cover! I really enjoyed Knox and Harlow's story. There was soooo much emotion in this story. I think I cried all through the book. Knox. That poor guy. You suffer with him all through those years he waited for Harlow to be ready for him. But she never was. Ugh that poor poor boy. And poor Harlow. Being trapped in that horrible situation. You hope all through the book that somehow Knox will come riding along and rescue the girl. But you also know that Collin with his connections will probably do something horrible once he finds out about Knox. You're almost afraid to keep reading... But I finished the book in one day - I just couldn't stop reading. I loved that we met Jagger Grey Graham from LETTING GO again! Maybe Graham will get his own book one day. Sometimes the story was a tiny little bit too much - a little exaggerated. But pff - I still loved it! TO THE STARS was an amazingly moving Romance about reaching for the stars - just stay strong and keep on believing in your Happy Ever After. Karma will always get the bad guys in the end!!! I couldn't put it down! GO GET IT FALL IN LOVE WITH KNOX TOO!!!
