And it endsVon Emmal was excited to see how this was going to play out and there was a lot of action to keep you on the edge of your seat, a lot of ups and downs and an ending that although I predicted was quite satisfying.Its been great to see Kristia grow up and set into the woman she is supposed to be, how she doesn't just stand behind Ull but beside him which is something I really like about ST's writing. Ull is a great match for her as well, he is strong and protective but clearly loves her. I loved seeing more of the Norse world as well getting to watch Inga and Gunner as well as great plus some other big guns. Overall an enjoyable story. 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Das große Finale - das aber schnell verpufft. Von Swakapo! Im dritten Buch der Elsker Saga trifft Vorherbestimmung auf freien Willen. Ragnarok kommt, aber Geheimwaffe Kristia scheut keine Gefahren, um ihre neue, göttliche Familie (und die Erde) zu retten. Gemeinsam mit ihrem Mann Ull und ihren Freunden Inga und Gunnar (und dem ganzen Götterklan) gelingt es, das Schicksal abzuwenden. Spannend zu lesen, aber ohne Nachhall. Der Roman gefällt, solange man ihn liest - und dann vergisst man ihn auch schnell wieder. Alles in allem also eine gute Unterhaltung. Wie bereits bei den beiden vorherigen Romanen finde ich, dass die Figuren zu wenig Tiefe haben und die Handlung zu reibungslos verläuft. Hier leidet man an keiner Stelle mit, denn es gibt kein Liebesleid. Die Gefahr ist einzig außerhalb - und selbst in dem Moment, als Kristia impulsiv handelt und ihr Glück für immer in Gefahr zu bringen droht, bleibt es doch nur bei einem Moment, ganz so, als ob die Autorin ihre Figuren nicht zu sehr fordern möchte. 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Götter und ihre Probleme, Klasse! Von CASpannender Roman über nordische Götter und was passiert, wenn sie unter Menschen leben müssten. Außerdem dann noch Kampf um Götterbereich. Sehr spannend und gut geschrieben.
