Kurzbeschreibung
Felicity Malcolm Childes gift for experiencing visions through touch has always been more curse than blessing. To deflect the more agonizing images generated by her suitors, she covers herself from head to toe. Only the maddeningly handsome Ewen Ives provokes tingles of pleasure rather than pain, but he is already betrothed. Now her only hope is to persuade Ewen to take her to Scotland to find the ancient book of spells that could allow her to reverse her gift and free her from its burden. Ewen may be a brilliant inventor who can move rivers and harness lightning, but he also knows better than to underestimate the mischief-making Malcolm sisters. In spite of his misgivings, he cant let the mousy, heavily clad Felicity travel to Edinburgh without a proper escort. Little does he suspect that beneath Felicitys unsightly cloak is a serenely practical woman whose remarkable beauty and courage will utterly captivate him and ignite a fiery passion with the power to fulfill both their dreams.
