KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. feel-good romanceVon Stefanie K.Thanks to netgalley and Entangled for the ARC in exchange for an honest review.I always had a soft spot for books about bakeries, restaurants or hotels. This is kind of weird because I neither have a cooking/baking passion nor the wish to open a business myself.This book came as a wonderful surprise. It is the perfect feel-good romance you need for a cosy reading day.I loved the characters. Natalie is wonderfully normal, a woman trying to stand her own but still dreaming about the man who is sweeping her off her feet. Eric is a man you could just swoon over...he is coming from money but still wants to build up his own business without his parents help. Those things he did for Natalie brought hearts to my eyes.I absolutely loved Natalie and Eric together. They were so sweet and I had a constant smile on my face.I also loved the humour in the story, there were quite a lot of scenes which made me laugh out loud or smirk. Humour and romance is the perfect combination for me.I enjoyed Kira Archer's writing style a lot and will definitely have a look into her other books.
