Holy sh...Von Melok this is the sweeter version of Nic but still this book has me all up in knots i cant wait for the second part and see what secrets Sebastian is revealing to Payton.you can feel the connection right out of the book and i read in in one setting couldnt but it down will i was trough and then it just ended...i cant so wait for the next part...waiting

Quick, easy read, too shortVon readerIt was a quick read, too short. The plot with the dream made a nice difference, but I didn't get the relation between Sebastian and his father. Conrad seems to be dependent on Sebastian and backs off when confronted. It wasn't poorly written and I really enjoyed Sebastian's character, I just didn't feel any connection to it. Being 25 he does not appear to be very mature.I hope the story improves to Nic Edwards usual standard.
