Great vampire paranormal romanceVon Henry SummonI loved how this book continued on where the other one, Tale of the Century Bride: Book 1, left off. It was a nice follow through of the first story with a nice addition of some new characters, even including a son.Much like a fairy tale, this story has a lot of fantastical events. I mean, it is a paranormal romance after all, but at it's center it has a real warmth too. The main heroine and hero really love each other and it is evident in this unique love story. The ending was a little sad but it fit well into a wonderful story and series that I really enjoyed.
